Part 3, Journals and Periodicals

Philippine Philatelic News

The Philippine Philatelic News was the official publication of the International Philippine Philatelic Society (IPPS) and although initial was published bi-monthly with some of the early numbers combined. During 1977 it changed to being published quarterly.

Originally known as the Philippine Philatelic Newsletter which was renamed in 1996 to the Philippine Philatelic News. The publication commenced with Volume 2 No 1. for the Jan-Feb 1976 edition.

Volume 6 was published in 1980 as a single edition (Nos. 1-4) and included a catalogue of Errors, Freaks and Oddities from the Republic Period stamps. There was then a break in publication (during which time the IPPS News was published) until 1985 with the publication Volume 7 No. 1 which was wholly represented by Encarnacion's article (Encarnacion, 1985). on the "Establishment of the Philippine Postal System".

Volume 8 No 1 followed in September 1986, and a Special Edition in November of that year as part of PHILPEX '88. From 1987 publication resumed on a quarterly basis. The last edition under this title was Volume 12 No. 4 for the 4th Quarter of 1990.

In 1991 the Philippine Philatelic News was renamed the Philippine Philatelic Journal.

Linda Stanfield was editor 1976 to 1987. Robert Yacano was editor between 1986 and 1990.
